on a previous occasion when Rao Shama Rao the then Registrar was on deputation to Allahabad to attend the conference of Registrars Rao Rama Rao was in charge of the office but it was clearly stated by the Registrar on that occasion that the arrangement did not entail any claim for charge allowance.

3 It is for consideration & orders whether the allowance has been sanctioned now. Perhaps the Govt's D. O referred to in the correspondence may throw additional light on the question but the case is analogous to a Munsiff handing over charge to his Head Munshi. The Head Munshi does not get any allce. Similarly when Shamadas was transferred Ramadas the Pr Officer present relieved him. There seems therefore no reason to grant any charge allce as he worked after transfer in charge of the Office.
